HISTORY STUDY AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Class Will Take Up the "Elizabethan Period" During Summer.

AN ENJOYABLE HOUSE PARTY

Miss Spilman Treats Her Guests to Supper on Blennerhassett's Island.

When Visions of Her Face Come

O'er Me. O'er Me.

When visions of her face come o'er me, of her sweet face so far away, I say what lovers said before me, What lovers will forever say;
That flowers bloom sweeter for her being, That plirds sing sweeter for her seeling. That grass is streener, skies more blue, That all things take a richer hue.
Lovers have said these things before; Lovers will say them evermore.

O, sweet young love, that in all ages
Bears ever one eternal form!
With lasting youth your oldest pages
Glow ever, ever fresh and warm.
Oh, dear old story ever young!
Poets have painted, artists sung;
Bure, naught in life is half so-sweet;
Death cannot make you incomplete.
Lovers have said these things before;
Lovers will say them evermore.

—Frederick Wadsworth Loring.

ONANCOCK, VA.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., July 8.—Miss Madeline Rich, the eldest daughter of the Superintendent of Life Saving Stations
for this district Captain Neweil B. Rich, gave a delightful lawn fete in honor of her guest, Miss Grace Walton, of Farmville, Va., on last Monday evening. The Rich home on Korr Street was finely illuminated and the lawn handsomely decorated with colored Japanese lanterns.
The feature of the evening was a contest in which the answers to the questions asked was the name of a flower.
The prizes, first and last, were won by Miss Letitia Geiger and Mr. Robert E.
Powell. The excellent hospitality, the refreshments, and the happy company,
all together made a most pleasant evening.
Those present were: Misses Grace (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
